

BOOKS FOR LIBRARIES

Our world is beautiful. Yet it can also be scary, overwhelming, difficult and complicated. Children are shaped by stories that reflect the truth they see around them, whether that's coping with an unconventional family, healing from loss or illness, or learning to cherish and protect our fragile natural environment. When stories are told with heart and compassion, it is possible to provide hope and comfort even when dealing with the most difficult of subjects. And while we take our responsibility to help our young readers seriously, we aren't afraid to share a few laughs along the way.

We offer free, comprehensive and professionally crafted teacher notes for our titles. Find them at www.ekbooks.org
