Book of the Year Awards shortlist for 2023

Jørn's Magnificent Imagination

Coral Vass and Nicky Johnston

THEMES: IMAGINATION, CREATIVITY, ARCHITECTURE, AUSTRALIAN HISTORY

Jørn's Magnificent Imagination is the true story of Jørn Utzon, the architect of the world-renowned Sydney Opera House. In this gorgeously illustrated book, we follow Jørn through his life as he discovers his love of building and creating, gathering ideas from everything around himself. Along the way, young readers will be reminded of the importance of taking the time to dream and create, and of the incredible power of the imagination.

Get Ready, Mama!

Sharon Giltrow and Arielle Li

THEMES: FAMILY, ROUTINE, ROLE REVERSAL

Getting Mama ready for the day can be a challenge... you'd better watch out that she doesn't sneak back into bed, try to distract you with cuddles, or... wait, is Mama watching TV?! Even the most reluctant risers will find the fun in the morning routine with this playful role-reversal story about a mama who just doesn't want to get ready!

SPECIFICATIONS: 9781922539867 | RRP $24.99 | Hardcover | 245 x 255 mm | Colour | Ages 4-8

Our friends over at Little Pink Dog Books have also had two picture books shortlisted for the 2023 Speech Pathology Australia Book of the Year Awards. You can order Little Pink Dog Books through your EK Books rep.

Buster Follows His Nose

Paula Stevenson and Jenny Hale

A story demonstrating the loyalty of a blind and faithful old sheepdog named Buster, who always performs his duty in guarding and protecting Tilly, the youngest, most vulnerable member of the family when she becomes lost in the Australian bush. By following his nose Buster can easily lead Tilly home, but he can't make her understand what he wants. He stays with Tilly and looks after her all through the night, keeping wild dingoes away until the search party finds them in the morning.

Night Lights

Inda Ahmad Zahri and Lesley McGee

This story recounts the childhood memories of cousins growing up with their grandparents deep in the Malaysian countryside. In a time without the glare and distraction of modern technology, they discover the brilliance of nature by moon and candlelight. Cultural details are woven into the story as they honour the special bond they have with their grandparents.
