Books with Heart on Issues that Matter

If you can see it, you can be it.

At EK Books we believe in the importance of stories that reflect the kaleidoscope of the childhood experience. Our stories include relatable characters and reflect the lived experiences of children from diverse family types, and physical abilities and neurological differences and strengths. We often tackle complex themes that many publishers avoid, but always in a way that is intriguing for children, equipping them with the tools they need to thrive in today's complex world.

Superheroes for a Day

Craig Cormick & Lauren Mullinder

9781922539977 | Paperback | 210 x 135 mm | 8¼ x 5¼ in | 112 pp | JUL 24

THEMES: AUTISM, NEURODIVERSITY, SCHOOL, SOCIAL ACCEPTANCE, EMPATHY

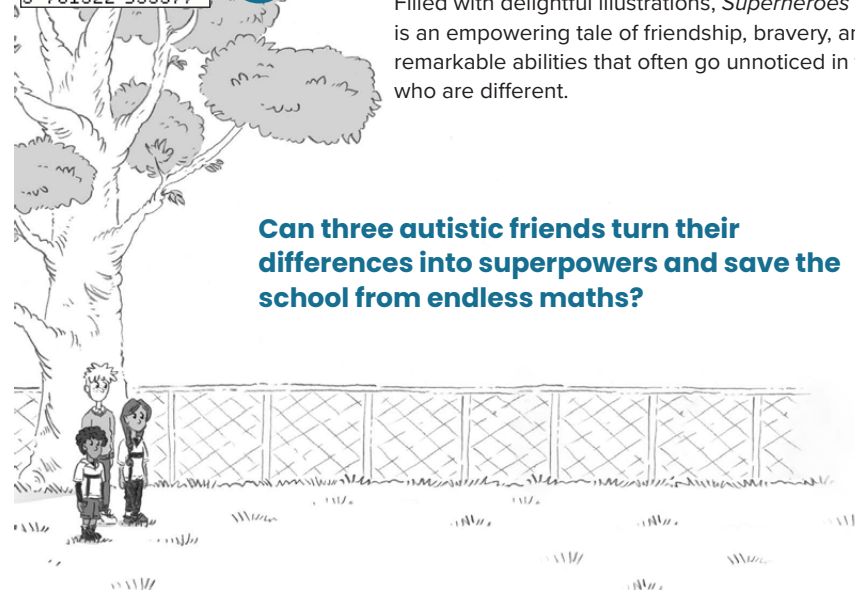

Superheroes for a Day tells the engaging story of Max, Daniel, and Natalie's mission to save their school from endless maths lessons. Using their unique abilities like heightened memory and attention to detail, they turn their differences into superpowers.

Offering a refreshing perspective, where differences that often mark kids as 'other' are reframed as uniquely useful, this book transfer the quirky into cool, allowing both kids on the spectrum and their neurotypical classmates to rethink what it means to be hero. The story offers insight into what life it like for kids on the spectrum in a fun and engaging manner, resonating with readers in mainstream classrooms.

Filled with delightful illustrations, Superheroes for a Day is an empowering tale of friendship, bravery, and the remarkable abilities that often go unnoticed in those who are different.

The Real Cowgirl

Isabelle Duff & Susannah Crispe

9781922539687 | Hardcover | 245 x 255 mm | 9½ x 10 in | 32 pp | JUN 24

THEMES: ANXIETY, SCHOOL, ANIMALS AS THERAPY

When Sal rides her pony, she feels like a cowgirl; brave, smart and wild. But at school, she is isolated and anxious. In this vibrantly illustrated, heart-warming story, find out how a small act of bravery and the power of friendship help Sal to be herself even when she is scared. Perfect for young readers who are struggling with nerves or anxiety.

New from the talented young author of Cookie, Isabelle Duff draws on her own experiences of childhood anxiety to create a relatable character kids will love.

ABOUT THE CREATORS

Isabelle Duff is a farmer, author, and student at the University of New South Wales, where she is studying Advanced Science and Commerce.

Susannah Crispe is a Canberra-based children's book illustrator with a background in zoology and art history and a love of beautifully crafted books.

Nobody Likes Monday

Kelly Lee & Amy Calautti

9781922539847 | Hardcover | 245 x 255 mm | 9½ x 10 in | 32 pp | AUG 24

THEMES: RESILIENCE, EMOTIONAL GROWTH, POSITIVITY, SELF ACCEPTANCE

It's pretty tough being Monday – you're not named after a god like Thursday, and you're certainly not a two-day party like Saturday and Sunday. Instead, you're the start of the week, when people have to wake up early and head back to school and work. Monday even has a pile of complaint letters to prove that nobody likes her. Nobody Likes Monday is a story about the impact of people's perceptions of ourselves, and the fact that we all have value; we just need to learn to see it.

In a world where the days of the week come to life, Monday learns to let go of negativity and accept herself for who she is.

ABOUT THE CREATORS

Kelly Lee is a teacher, educational curriculum designer and mum. She lives in Australia and can see kangaroos over her back fence.

Amy Calautti often made up games based around drawing to entertain her younger brother and cousins. She now lives with her small tribe of humans who inspire her every day.

9781922539571 | Hardcover | 245 x 255 mm | 9½ x 10 in | 32 pp | MAR 24

THEMES: MILESTONES, MOTHER/CHILD BOND

My Heart depicts the many ways a mother's heart can experience love and emotion while her baby journeys through the milestones of growing up. The story uses repetition and subtle variation to reflect the activity and reactions of the mother's heart, and how they change with each mother-child interaction.

The narrative moves through the early years until the child goes off on their first independent activity, a deeply moving moment for all mothers. Beautifully detailed illustrations depict the connection between mother and child, reminding readers that a mother's heart will always be with her children, no matter where they go.

ABOUT THE CREATORS

Katrina McKelvey loves tea, mint chocolate, scary movies and rollercoasters. As a child, she witnessed a hot air balloon's unexpected landing in her backyard. Her previous books include Up To Something, Isla's Family Tree and Dandelions.

THEMES: FAMILY BREAKDOWN, ART

A lyrical and optimistic tale about the power of possibility and perspective, told from the point of view of a child experiencing a family breakdown.

Frankie's parents have separated, and her world has fallen apart, much like the precious vase that broke on the day Dad left. But then Nana takes her to an art gallery where she falls in love with a massive mosaic, built from a ceramicist's broken works after an earthquake. Frankie realises that though the pieces of her life may never fit together again as they did before, there is a chance that from the 'broken' pieces she will be able to rebuild a new beautiful life.

"The pieces of her world would probably never fit together exactly how they used to, but maybe they could find a different way to fit together, a new way, a way that was every bit as beautiful ... a mosaic."

9781922539144 | Hardcover | 245 x 255 mm | 9½ x 10 in | 32 pp

THEMES: IMAGINATION, CREATIVITY, ARCHITECTURE, AUSTRALIAN HISTORY

Celebrating new ideas that can make a world of difference, Jørn's Magnificent Imagination is the true story of Jørn Utzon, the architect of the world-renowned Sydney Opera House. In this gorgeously illustrated book, we follow Jørn through his life as he discovers his love of building and creating, gathering ideas from everything around himself. Along the way, young readers will be reminded of the importance of taking the time to dream and create, and of the incredible power of the imagination.

"Cleverly leaves the reveal of the Sydney Opera House to the last page, so that young readers have many opportunities to guess what the magnificent landmark that the book is referring to might be. This is the perfect picture book to give to any young creators and builders as it shows that not everyone may always like what you do but to never give up trying." Story Links

THEMES: FRIENDSHIP, CONFLICT RESOLUTION, EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE, EMPATHY

In Two Rabbits, Little Brown Rabbit and Little Grey Rabbit have had an argument. As they go their separate ways into the night, the wind whispers around them to remind them of their sharp words. Will they be able to come back together and find a way to save their friendship? The story portrays the physical and emotional journey of two best friends as they experience feelings of anger, sadness and loneliness. Young readers will learn that friendship can overcome differences and disagreement.

ABOUT THE CREATORS

Larissa Ferencuk is a writer who loves all things magical and whimsical. She lives in Adelaide with her husband, three children and one very lovely Little Grey Rabbit. Two Rabbits is her debut picture book. Larissa also loves to volunteer her time, including with the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden Program, where she has assisted many groups of children in the cooking program over the last six years.

Prue Pittock studied Art and Design. She began her career working in advertising, which led to her dream job, illustrating and designing record covers for EMI Australia. Prue used her love of a limited colour palette to develop her own distinctive style.
